Yes. The plan is for LBG to produce one more draft of everything and send us both electronic & hard copies. Hard copies will be put in a room somewhere so that we can all flip through at will and make corrections.

The tables/figures that go with data reports are in the PDF version of Appendix A, which is on Sharepoint, because it is very large.

Am I right that we're going to get one more shot at looking at the complete "oeuvre" prior to publication? I'm having problems finding some of the tables and figures that go with the data reports and want to make sure I lay eyes on them.
